TELL ENUMERATOR ALL CENSUS FACTS

No Fear of Private Business Being Made Public—Penalty for Refusing to Answer All Questions Asked by Census Man.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 14.—President Taft in a proclamation issued today urges everybody throughout the United States "to answer promptly, completely and accurately all inquiries addressed to them by the enumerators or other employees" who will be engaged in the taking of the thirteenth decennial census, which work will begin one month from today. The proclamation follows:

"Whereas, by the Act of Congress, approved July 2, 1909, the thirteenth decennial census of the United States is to be taken, beginning on the fifteenth day of April, nineteen hundred and ten; and

"Whereas, a correct enumeration of the population every ten years is required by the Constitution of the United States for the purpose of determining the representation of the several States in the House of Representatives; and

"Now, therefore, I, William Howard Taft, President of the United States of America, do hereby declare and make known that, under the Act aforesaid, it is the duty of every person to answer all questions on the census schedules applying to him and the family to which he belongs, and to the farm occupied by him or his family, and that any adult refusing to do so is subject to penalty.

"The sole purpose of the census is to secure general statistical information regarding the population and resources of the country, and replies are required from individuals only in order to permit the compilation of such general statistics. The census has nothing to do with taxation, with army or jury service, with the compilation of school attendance, or with the enforcement of any national, State or local law or ordinance, nor can any person be harmed in any way by furnishing the information required. There need be no fear that any disclosure will be made regarding any individual person or his affairs. For the due protection of the rights and interests of the persons furnishing information, every employee of the Census Bureau is prohibited, under heavy penalty, from disclosing any information which may thus come to his knowledge.

"I therefore earnestly urge upon all persons to answer promptly, completely, and accurately all inquiries addressed to them by the enumerators or other employees of the Census Bureau, and thereby to contribute their share toward making this great and necessary public undertaking a success.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington this fifteenth day of March, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and ten, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty-fourth.

"By the President:

(Seal)

P. C. KNOX,

Secretary of State.

The proclamation is for the purpose of removing fears from the minds of some people who are of the opinion that information which they give concerning themselves to the census taker may be used in some way to the detriment of their personal or business interests. Against any such abuse, however, the government has thrown the strongest safeguards.

HOLT MUST TELL HIS INFORMANT

James L. Holt, the former tax assessor, must explain how he became possessed of information relating to the deliberations of the Territorial Grand Jury. Holt, who is now under indictment by the grand jury on a charge of embezzlement, filed a motion some time ago to quash the indictment on the ground that only twelve of the seventeen grand jurors voted to indict him. When the Holt case was pending before the grand jury, five extra jurors were drawn, others having been excused. Holt claimed that if the five had not been added an indictment would not have been returned.

Yesterday Holt was summoned before the grand jury to tell the source of his information, but he refused to make a statement, and a citation was issued for him by Judge Cooper, returnable Saturday morning.

If a married woman is looking for trouble all she has to do is read extracts to her husband from the letters he wrote her during their courtship.
